CAR RENTAL INDUSTRY HIGHLIGHTS

TOP TAKEAWAYS

The road trip reigns supreme

- Cars are again the most popular mode of transportation for upcoming travel (62%).
- Car rental search trends have surpassed pre-pandemic levels, with a 25% increase for January-September 2022 compared to the same period in 2019.¹
- Around one third of consumers are likely to choose a drivable destination for their next leisure trip.

The price must be right

- The importance of price and flexible booking options to consumers cannot be overstated.
- 50% of people rank low pricing or refundable bookings as their top priority when booking a car rental, while only 31% of those in the car rental industry believe these are consumers' top concerns.
- More than half of consumers (51%) would never book non-refundable car rentals domestically, and even more (59%) wouldn't book these options internationally.

Reputation is everything

Consumers rank guest reviews (48%) ahead of family recommendations (47%) and travel booking websites (45%) when deciding whether to book with a travel provider.

Almost half (46%) of consumers will opt for the travel option with the best customer reviews over the best value. Travel professionals are taking note, with 52% making changes to their business due to negative customer reviews.
